

The 14th Magnifying endoscopy conference

Program

Date: Monday, June 4th, 2018

Time: 18:00-20:00 followed by dinner,

Venue: Hamilton Hotel Washington D.C (U.S.A)

Address: 1001 14th Street NW, Washington, DC 20005 Phone: +1 (202)-682-0111

Room: Farragut Square

President: Shin-ei Kudo, MD., Ph.D.

Chairman of Digestive Disease Center Showa University Northern Yokohama Hospital

Chairs: Aryn Haji (London), Stefan Seewald (Zurich)

Special lecture: 20 minutes for each speaker

- 1 Progress of magnifying endoscopy diagnosis with artificial intelligence
- from Pit pattern to Endocytoscopy -
Shin-ei Kudo, Showa University Northern Yokohama Hospital, Yokohama
- 2 Current technique of POEM - preservation of sling muscle -
Haruhiro Inoue, Showa University Koto Toyosu Hospital, Tokyo

Main session: 15 minutes for each speaker

- 3 Artificial intelligence-aided diagnosis of NERD with magnification narrow-band imaging
Shraddha Gulati, King's College Hospital, London
- 4 Recent developments in image enhanced endoscopy and optical magnification from the European Perspective
Helmut Neumann, University Medical Center Mainz, Germany
- 5 Endoscopic treatment of Barrett's early neoplasia: western perspective between EMR and ESD
Stefan Seewald, Center for Gastroenterology Hirslanden Clinic Group, Zurich
- 6 Endoscopic Diagnosis for LST using LST-subtype classification and pit pattern
-Future application of JNET and AI technology-
Yutaka Saito, National Cancer Center Hospital, Tokyo
- 7 Defining criteria for high confidence optical diagnoses using the NICE classification
David G. Hewett, The University of Queensland, Australia

Closing remarks:

Haruhiro Inoue, Showa University Koto Toyosu Hospital, Tokyo

*Please note that the program might be changed.

Thank you for your cooperation.

